

Francis Joseph (FJ) BOLGER

BOLGER, Francis Joseph (FJ) November 24, 1960 - September 29, 2015 Of El Granada, CA, formerly of Sonoma, grew up in New Jersey, attended Williams College, and pursued a career as a Video Producer in the San Francisco Bay area. He loved to travel, sail the San Francisco Bay, and play harmonica. Always the life of the party, FJ enjoyed being with close friends and family for all occasions, whether an extended Sunday brunch, or an oyster and champagne picnic at the beach throwing a Frisbee with his girls. FJ was many things: A creative, brilliant mind; an enthusiastic, youthful spirit with a joyous and infectious sense of humor; and especially, a loving husband, father, and friend. He leaves these gifts behind in his daughters, Ava and Zoe, who embody his spirit, intelligence, wit, and love. FJ was taken from us suddenly and too soon. He was preceded in death by his father, Frank. Those of us who knew him, and especially his wife Lisa, his daughters, his mother Kathleen, his sister Francine (Michael), his brothers Jerry (Rene) and Chris, and his extended family and many friends, will not forget what FJ brought to our lives. He will be greatly missed. A Celebration of Life will be held on November 7, 11:00 a.m., at the Douglas Beach House (Bach Dancing and Dynamite Society) in Half Moon Bay. In lieu of flowers, a college fund has been established for his daughters in FJ's memory:

www.crowdrise.com/educationfundforavaz

Published in the Sonoma Index-Tribune from Oct. 16 to Oct. 17, 2015

