

Currie Brewer(1922 - 2015)

144
died at age 93 on 12/22. Beloved and deeply missed by his family and friends, Currie will be remembered for his warmth, humor, and wisdom. He was a second father to many young people and active in progressive causes. Served proudly in WWII as a Marines flight instructor. Graduate of Williams College ('44). Amateur American/Native American History expert. Accomplished advertising executive (Leo Burnett). Born in Evanston, raised in NY, he met the love of his life Alice in Chicago. They settled in Northbrook, lived briefly near Phoenix, and then the SF Bay Area before retiring to Barrington. He is survived by his wife Alice (née Dalton) of 65 years, son Scott (Glenwood Springs, CO), daughter Janis (Oakland CA), daughter Gail and son Miles (both of Barrington), and granddaughter Rachel Lamorte (Denver). Preceded in death by his brother John II and his parents John Dwight and Gertrude Lukes. A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date. Memorials to the St Labre Indian School (www.stlabre.org).

Published in a Chicago Tribune Media Group Publication on Dec. 29, 2015

