Obituary / Death Notice

Cary Nicholas Carpender, 90, of Putney, Vt., died peacefully Feb. 13, 2015, at his home after an extended period of failing health. He was born in New Brunswick, N.J., June 21, 1924, son of the late Moncure Conway and Elisabeth (Nicholas) Carpender. The family lived for many years in Short Hills, N.J. Mr. Carpender attended the Pingry School, as had his father before him, and entered Williams College at the beginning of World War II. While there, as a U.S. Navy Reservist, he completed his studies in three years. In April 1945, he was commissioned as a line officer in the U.S. Navy and served aboard ships in the South Pacific. Following his naval career, he joined the investment firm of J.P. Morgan in 1955. He later worked as a private investment counselor. His ties to Putney were early and deep. The family spent summers there from 1924 and bought Overhills as a summer residence in 1926. Following the death of both his parents, Mr. Carpender moved permanently to Putney in 1978. A thoughtful and kind man, he quietly gave long term support to several families in the area. He was a Putney auditor for a number of years, and served as a chairman for Brattleboro Union High School board for ten years. These and other community endeavors were performed with characteristic thoroughness and precision. He was an avid and highly skilled hunter and fisherman, hunting on his own woodland and on three occasions traveling to Africa and returning with several big game trophies. Survivors include many people who cared for him deeply, especially the people of Comfort Keepers, who provided him care. His half-brother, Moncure C. Carpender Jr., died earlier. A memorial service will be celebrated Saturday from 2 to 4 p.m. at Ker-Westerlund Funeral Home, 57 High St., Brattleboro. The Rev. Robert K. Sweet will officiate. Friends are invited to share stories and remembrances of his life. Burial will be held at a later date in the Carpender family plot in New Jersey.
