Obituary / Death Notice
Dianne Eichelberger, wife of Frank "Hardrock" Eichelberger, died on December 2, 2016. She was a loving wife, mother, grandmother and great grandmother. She loved to grow tomatoes, green beans and herbs. She loved John Wayne, old westerns, Fox News and good romance novels. She and Frank never met a crossword puzzle they could not complete together. She met Frank on a double date at Hayden Lake in 1948. Frank told Dianne that night they would marry. They were married July 16, 1949 and were together for almost 60 years before Frank passed away in 2011. Together they loved to travel the world, and they spent many winters at the condo they owned in Manzanillo, Mexico. Dianne loved her time in the sun. Dianne was a wonderful cook and was famous for her fried chicken, homemade tomato sauce, Wiener Schnitzel, roast beef, Yorkshire Pudding, among many other dishes. Dianne passed away at Hospice of Spokane North. The family would like to sincerely thank everyone there for helping to make her final days as comfortable as possible. Her daughter Kristy was her loving and patient caregiver for many years. Dianne is survived by her three children Peggy Ann McConnochie and her husband John McConnochie; Kristy Langbehn; Chip Eichelberger and his wife Miryana and their children Madison, Davis, and Lucas; Bob Langbehn and his wife Jennifer, and their son, Dianne's great grandson, Connor. Cemetery Details Greenwood Memorial Terrace 211 N. Government Way Spokane, WA, US, 99204
