Notice

Edward Erb, born April 6, 1938, to the late Caroyl McKee Erb and Edward George Erb in Cleveland, Ohio, died March 18, 2017. The family moved to Greenwich, Conn., in 1941, where he attended Greenwich public schools, graduating from Greenwich High School in 1956. He graduated from Williams College, Williamstown, Mass., in 1960 with a B.A. in geology. He was a member of the football, ice hockey and baseball teams. In his business career, he served as a sales representative, a sales manager, marketing services manager, plant manager, manager of corporate planning and development and general manager of folding carton and flexible packaging businesses. He became a vice president and general manager of Rexham Corp. in 1976, a vice president of Engraph Inc. in 1986 and president of Brown Products, Inc., a U.S. subsidiary of Haden McClellan Holdings, a British-based firm, in 1992. He retired in 1999, and relocated to St. Simons Island, Ga. He was a board member, executive committee member and treasurer of the Flexible Packaging Association in the early to mid 1980s. He served in the Air National Guard and Air Force Reserve from 1961-1967. He was a mentor in a Charlotte, N.C., high school and an Atlanta middle school and also coached youth ice hockey and baseball teams. He was predeceased by his sister, Kathleen E. Andrews of South Windsor, Conn. He is survived by his sons, Edward G. Erb of Cordele, Ga., and Kyle A. Erb of Atlanta, Ga.; and his former wife Barbara Russell Erb of Atlanta. He was a member of Fort Frederica Presbyterian Church, St. Simons Island, Ga. In lieu of customary remembrances, the family wishes memorial contributions to be directed to the Humane Society of South Coastal Georgia. A memorial service will be held at noon April 1, 2017, at Fort Frederica Presbyterian Church.
