

John H. Freeman M.D.(1931 - 2017)

53

April 14, 1931 - August 3, 2017 The Freeman family is grieving the loss of Dr. Freeman. He left peacefully surrounded by his loving family. Dr. Freeman is survived by his loving wife, Martha, his sons Henry (Kate) and Johnny. He was preceded by his adored daughter Marsha Elizabeth. He is also survived by his brother Richard, his grandchildren Danielle, Trevor, Tommy and Alexandra. John H. Freeman was born in Gouverneur, New York. He was raised in Ogdensburg, New York by his parents Howard and Elizabeth. John excelled in high school, played sports and the trumpet in the school band. John was a graduate with honors of Williams College in Williamstown, Mass., graduate of McGill University School of Medicine in Montreal, medical internships at: Charity Hospital, Louisiana, Children's Hospital San Diego, University Hospital San Diego, University of California, San Francisco, Total Hip Replacement studies in Manchester, England. Military: Lieutenant, U.S. Navy in Medical Corps. John and his family settled in Los Angeles, Ca., in 1964 where he established a private practice in Orthopedics until his retirement in 2011. He was a longtime member of the Los Angeles Tennis Club. Memberships: Fellow, American College of Orthopedic Surgery, Fellow, American Board of Orthopedic Surgery, International College of Surgeons, American Academy of Orthopedic Surgery. Services: Tuesday, August 15, 2017 at 10:00 a.m. Forest Lawn Memorial Park, Glendale - Church of the Reccessional (800) 201-3131

Funeral Home

Forest Lawn - Glendale

1712 S. Glendale Avenue Glendale, CA 91205
800-204-3131

Published in the Los Angeles Times from Aug. 14 to Aug. 15, 2017

