She grew up in Canton, OH and went on to Mary Washington College (now University) in Fredericksburg, VA, from which she graduated in 1953. While there, she met James W. Harvey, Jr., whom she married in 1955 in Washington, DC and was married to for more than 51 years until his death in 2007. They spent time in Baltimore, MD and Nashua, NH before settling in Sudbury, MA where they spent nearly 40 years and brought up five children, who survive her, daughter and son-in-law, Cynthia and Stephen Galbincea of Shaker Heights, OH, son and daughter-in-law, James, III and Emily Harvey of Franklin, MA, son and daughter-in-law, Douglas and Sarah Harvey of Hingham, MA, son and daughter-in-law, Scott and Liz Harvey of Concord, MA and son and daughter-in-law, Jeffrey and Claire Harvey of Bethesda, MD. She is survived by nine grandchildren, Michael, Rachael, Holland, Lillian, James (Jake), Eliza, Camilla, James (Jace) and Haisley; and her sister and brother-in-law, Cynthia and William Bond of Chevy Chase, MD. She was a devoted wife and mother who was loved deeply by her family.

Ann was a gifted artist and during her career was appointed as member of the US Stamp Advisory Committee and a distinguished member of the Ladies Committee at the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston, MA.

A service will be held on Thursday, May 4 at 2 p.m. at Georgetown Lutheran Church, 1556 Wisconsin Avenue, NW Washington, DC 20007. In lieu of flowers, please send donations in the name of Ann D. Harvey to The Museum of Fine Arts of Boston.
