

Elizabeth Sexton Kidder

WD '40

10016917

Sun | Local

— Aug 20th, 2002

Elizabeth Sexton Kidder, 84, of Bainbridge Island died of heart failure Aug. 16, 2002, in Seattle.

She was born March 31, 1918, in Winchester, Mass., to Isaac Edward and Nellie (Fraser) Sexton. She graduated from Brimmer and Mary High School in Boston in 1936 and from Bennett College in Millbrook, N.Y., in 1938.

Elizabeth Sexton Kidder

She married Arthur A. Kidder Jr. on March 21, 1942, in Winchester. He preceded her in death in 1989.

Mrs. Kidder was a homemaker.

She was affiliated with the Bainbridge Island Visually Impaired Support Group, the Wing Point Country Club on Bainbridge Island and the Freedom Library in Freedom, N.H. Favorite pastimes were painting, needlepoint, knitting and rug hooking.

Survivors include three daughters, Lynda Kidder Scheer of Coconut Creek, Fla., Dianne Kidder and her husband, Dan Johnston, and Sally Kidder Davis and her husband, Bob, all of Bainbridge Island; eight grandchildren, Andrew J. Scheer Jr., Christopher A. Scheer, Timothy A. Robinson, Jessica E. Robinson, Elizabeth F. Robinson, Sarah S. Davis, Tiffany M. Davis and Joshua P. Davis; and a great-grandson, Tyler D. Robinson. She was preceded in death by three siblings, Edward Sexton, Jane Prescott and Helen McIntyre.

A graveside service will be at 11 a.m. Saturday at Forest Chapel Cemetery in Barrington, R.I., under the direction of Monahan, Kelly, Drabble, Sherman Funeral Home of Providence, R.I. Local arrangements are under the direction of Lewis Funeral Chapel.

Memorial donations may be made to the Bainbridge Island Visually Impaired Support Group, P.O. Box 11464, Bainbridge Island, WA 98110 or to the Freedom Public Library, Attention: Treasurer, P.O. Box 259, Freedom, NH 03836.

Trending on Kitsap Sun

Storms sweeps into Kitsap

Washington governor: State will welcome refugees

Legos in class builds into controversy

Court hearing delayed; Kitsap Rifle and Revolver Club will remain closed

UW report details effects of climate change in Puget Sound

