

October 27, 2017

Dear family and friends,

William Essick Kimberly passed away on the 21st of October, 2017. His gentle and caring soul continues to fill our spirits as always.

A mass will be held for Bill at the Chapel of Seven Sorrows in the London Oratory on Brompton Road at 2:00pm, November 3rd. The mass will be officiated by Father Patrick Doyle, a close family friend of over a decade. Following the mass, Bill will be cremated, as he wished.

Bill's ashes will be brought back to the United States for burial this summer. It will be an opportunity for us to pray anew for him and celebrate his wonderful life.

Let us hold him in our love and prayers.

Elena, Essicka, Ariadne and Dagny
