Mark A. MacLennan
June 24, 1953 - December 12, 2014
Los Gatos

Mark Allen MacLennan, born June 24, 1953, peacefully passed away on Friday, December 12 after a long and valiant battle with cancer.

Mark had a successful career in the banking and finance world. He began his career in the 70s at Bank Boston in Boston, Massachusetts. There he rose through the ranks to become a respected leader of the bank. In 2004, Mark moved to California and ran global operations for Silicon Valley Bank. He then became the President of SVB Capital and was currently the Head of Corporate Finance.

Along with being an incredibly successful businessman, Mark was well known for his love and cherishing of family and friends. His warm smile, his firm pats on the back, and his famous "hugs", were loved by all who knew him. He brought a positive light to all around him and many will miss him.

Mark is survived by his wife and soul mate, Brenda. His children: Paige, Erin, Greg and Connor. His stepchildren: Lauren, Stephanie and Robbie, and his two sisters, Maureen and Carol.

Mark was an active participant on the board of The Peter Michael Foundation, a prostate cancer charity. In lieu of flowers, Mark requested that donations be made to The Peter Michael Foundation. Tax-deductible donations can be made by check, credit card or PayPal at:

www.petermichaelfoundation.org or by calling 415.999.7654.

A memorial service will be held for Mark on Thursday, December 18, 2014 at 1:30pm at St. Mary's Church, 219 Bean Ave., Los Gatos, CA.
