In Memoriam: Morlene T. Magoronga

African Studies

Morlene "Molly" Tario Magoronga
Obituary

Date of Death:

Tuesday, March 24th, 2015
Morlene passed away suddenly in Boston on the morning of Tuesday March 24. She was a bright, intelligent, kind, fun, sweet, loving and caring daughter, sister and friend. Morlene graduated from Williams College in June 2014 and spent most of her time during school breaks helping students preparing for college-entrance exams. At the time of her death, Morlene was a fellow at Bridge International Academies where she was following her passion for education. She will be dearly missed by all who knew her.

We are fundraising to finance the repatriation of her body back home to Zimbabwe, which is a very costly and complicated process. Her family would appreciate any assistance in ensuring that she is laid to rest among her relatives.

Please help me get my sister home.

Thank you all for your kindness.

Wendy Magoronga (on behalf of the Magoronga Family)
+1 413 652 0018

Updates

03/27/2015
by Wendy Magoronga
Thank you all for tremendous support and generosity. We are humbled and touched by your kind deeds and words about our daughter and sister. It is comforting to know that Morlene touched so many people during her short time with us.

Thanks to your generosity, Morlene will be on her way home next Wednesday. We will keep the donation page open, but wanted to let you know that we have reached our goal.

All surplus donations will be used to set up a fund in honor of Morlene to support Zimbabwean students with the cost of SAT preparation. Since she was passionate about education and her students, we believe this is how she would...