RICHARD MAIDMAN

MAIDMAN--Richard Harvey

Mortimer. With great sadness, the Maidman family announces the passing of Richard H. M. Maidman, our beloved father, stepfather, grandfather, and uncle. Richard was the Chairman of Townhouse Management Company and of counsel to Maidman and Mittelman, LLP. He was one of New York City's leading real-estate builders and owners. He was also a dedicated and generous philanthropist. Richard loved his family and New York and carried on a family tradition in business and public service initiated by his father, William and mother Ada. Richard was born on November 17, 1933, and passed away peacefully in his 84th year on December 9, 2016. He attended Hebron Academy, Williams College and Yale Law School. He was a distinguished member of the New York and Florida Bar. He was a unique character whose vision greatly influenced his perspective as a business leader, having a profound impact on all he touched. His intelligence, hard work, and dedication were great assets to the family business and to the City of New York. Richard was the widower of the late Gail Ann Lowe Maidman and is survived by his brother David, sister Bonnie, and his children, Dr. Patrick (Jacqueline, deceased) Maidman, Mitchel (Arlene) Maidman, Dagny (Molly) Maidman; stepchildren Evan (Regina) Haymes; Starr (Jacques) Kempin. Devoted Papa Richard of Allison, Beatrice, Harrison, Julia, Jonathan, Ezra, Sage and Cassidy Maidman. Adored step-papa Richard of Esme, Theodore Haymes and Sterling Kempin. Formerly married to Lynne Maidman Manning. He was a longtime benefactor of the Albert Einstein School of Medicine and Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law at Yeshiva University, Yale Law School, Hebron Academy, Carnegie Hall, Lincoln Center, UJA, Temple Emanuel, Fifth Avenue Synagogue, Community Synagogue in Port Washington and New York Collaborates for Autism. In lieu of flowers, contributions in Richard's memory may be made to any of these organizations. Funeral services will be held Sunday, December 11, at 12:30pm at Temple Emanuel on 65th Street and Fifth Avenue.
