

48
Lymann A. Manser
Manser, Lyman A.

88, died November 21, 2015. He was born in Peekskill, NY and grew up in Gouverneur, NY. He graduated from the U.S. Navy's V-12 officer training program at Williams College, MA during World War II and returned there after the war to complete his BA degree. Lyman worked as a radio announcer for WWNY in Watertown, NY before attending and graduating from Cornell Law School. He worked for several years at law firms in New York City and Binghamton, NY before the family moved to Phoenix in 1960. Lyman was with the Phoenix law firm of Lewis and Roca for 36 years, specializing in real estate law and serving as Managing Partner for 8 years. He is survived by his wife of 61 years, Dorothy; sons Timothy (Susan) and James; and granddaughters Emily and Gwyneth. Memorial service will be private, for family only. The family would be grateful for donations in Lyman's memory to Hospice of the Valley or a charity of your choice .

Published in The Arizona Republic on Dec. 20, 2015