

45

Dr. Strother B. Marshall

Dr. Strother B. Marshall, 93

BETHEL - On Friday, April 6, 2018, Dr. Strother B. Marshall passed away at the age of 93 at the Veterans Home in South Paris.

Strother was born in 1924, in Baltimore, Md., the third child in a family of four. His family placed a strong emphasis on education for their children and all attended elite colleges and graduate schools. Strother attended the Boys Latin School in Baltimore, and Williams College and Johns Hopkins Medical School in Baltimore, fulfilling his lifetime ambition to become a doctor.

Upon completing his education and residency programs, earning his right to practice medicine, Strother joined the Air Force in 1950 and served for 10 years, retiring in 1960. Strother then joined a private medical practice in Claremont, N.H. Later in his career, he worked in Albany, N.Y.; Great Barrington, Mass.; and finally for a large hospital in Salt Lake City.

Retiring at the age of 70, Strother moved to central California, where he enjoyed a long and fruitful retirement full of travelling and activity in local community organizations.

He was an active member of the William Strother Society, and also participated in the Semester at Sea Program, sailing around the world while taking college courses.

In 2013, due to declining health, Strother relocated to Maine to live with his son and daughter-in-law, Arthur and Ellen Marshall, in Bethel.

Strother enjoyed writing and kept up an extensive correspondence with many friends and associates throughout his life. Of his many interests, reading and gardening were certainly at the top.

Strother is survived by his sister, Marion Hooper, of Sarasota, Fla.; his former wife, Norma Marshall, of Saco; and his two sons, Arthur Marshall, of Bethel, and Thomas Marshall, of Biddeford Pool.

Strother also will be fondly remembered by his three grandchildren, Sarah Marshall and Bill Marshall, of Portland; and Chelsea Marshall, of Edinburgh, Scotland; as well as his two great-grandchildren, Ethan and Lucy Marett.

Strother will also be forever remembered by his numerous nieces, nephews, extended family and dear friends.

Strother was predeceased by his two older brothers, Edward A. Marshall and J. Howard Marshall.

A memorial service in memory of Strother will be held later in the spring at his favorite vacation spot, Biddeford Pool.

Memorial donations in memory of Strother Marshall may be made to Maine Veterans Home
477 High Street
South Paris, ME 04281

