RICHARD JAMES PAS
1945 - 2015 | Notice | Condolences

Pas, Richard James Age 69, passed away March 24, 2015 from a heart attack. He was born to Ted and Eleanor (Wendt) Pas, June 15, 1945 in Madison, Wisconsin. He is survived by his wife Gerry, daughters Emily (Eric) Isenberg, and Carolyn (B.J.) Stone, five grandchildren, his sister, Kathryn Olson, and many other relatives. Dick graduated from Wauwatosa West High School, received a BA in Economics from Williams College, and a JD from UW Law School. He served as Captain in the U.S. Army Reserves, worked as Economic Analyst for the Congressional Research Service, and Counsel for the U.S. Small Business Administration. He was owner and president of Heartland Home Mortgage Company for 20 years before retiring. He co-founded the Trailbreaker Run in Waukesha. Recently Dick served three terms as Chair of the Democratic Party of Waukesha County, and he was associated with numerous political, progressive, and conservation organizations. Dick loved hunting, fishing, and the outdoors. He was very proud of his family and was fully engaged in his interests through the last day of his life. There will be a remembrance event on Sunday, April 19 from 2 to 4 PM at the Oconomowoc Community Center, 220 W. Wisconsin Avenue in Oconomowoc. It will be a time to celebrate Dick’s life and share stories. Memorial gifts may be made to the Nature Conservancy.
