Charles Pinkerton Jr.

KENNEBUNK - Charles Pinkerton, Jr., 91, died on April 21, 2015, at Gosnell Memorial Hospice House in Scarborough, following a fall. He had been a resident of Huntington Common Reminiscence unit for almost three years. Charles was born in Baltimore, Md., to Charles and Sarah Harrison Pinkerton of Mount Kisco, N.Y., and attended Rippowam and Lenox schools, graduating from Williams College in 1948, where he was a member of the Theta Delta Chi fraternity. He settled in Norwalk, Conn. to raise his family, commuting to NYC where he was a sales manager at International Paper Company. He enjoyed his travels throughout the eastern coast and Mexico, looking forward especially to his annual sojourn to fly fish on the Miramichi which he continued past his retirement from IP in 1982. Charles was a member of the Sons of the Revolution and attended events with his father, brother and son. He spent time in the summer on Squam Lake in New Hampshire, where he had spent his honeymoon.

He is survived by his wife of 55 years, Lucy; and his three children, Sarah Pinkerton and her husband Paul Bonneau of Cape Porpoise, Charles Pinkerton III of Kennebunkport and Anne Pinkerton of Kennebunk.
