
Jay Scott Prendergast
Prendergast, Jay Scott

72

Jay Prendergast, formerly of Larchmont, passed away at his home in East Haven, Ct. on February 14th. He was born on June 13, 1950 to the late Virginia (Murphy) and Scott Prendergast. Jay attended St. Augustine's School, Fordham Prep, Williams College and Harvard University. He was a research biochemist who worked in the public and private sectors including pharmaceutical firms, Sloan Kettering, Yale University and the Cleveland Clinic. He was a lifetime member of the Larchmont Shore Club. Jay is survived by his sister, Laurie Pasqua (Gregori), niece Yvette (Landry), nephew Evan (Kerry) and three grandnieces. He was predeceased by his stepfather Philip Agar. He will be dearly missed by his family and friends. A private family memorial service is planned.

Published in the The Journal News on Feb. 24, 2015
