

John S. Reshetar Jr.

John S. Reshetar, Jr.

46

John S. Reshetar, Jr. died February 7, 2015. He was a Professor Emeritus of Political Science at the University of Washington (Seattle) since 1989 following four decades of service on university faculties. The 32 years at the University of Washington were preceded by eight years at Princeton (1947-1955) as an instructor and lecturer in politics as well as a year's service as visiting lecturer in political science at Yale. He received his B.A. at Williams College in 1945 (Phi Beta Kappa) and his M.A. (1946) and Ph.D. (1950) in political science from Harvard University. He is the author of The Ukrainian Revolution, 1917-1920 and of a history of the Soviet Communist Party and of a basic work, The Soviet Polity. He is also co-author of Introduction to Comparative Government and has published more than 30 journal articles and chapters in symposia.

He is survived by his wife, Helene T. Reshetar.

Published in The Seattle Times from Mar. 11 to Mar. 12, 2015