Obituary / Death Notice

Frank R Rosenbach January 19, 1934 - February 14, 2015 Frank Rosenbach of San Francisco passed away on February 14, 2015. Frank was born in Hackensack, NJ and lived on the east coast until moving to San Francisco in 1977. Frank attended Williams College and graduated in 1955. He remained a loyal supporter of the College and was very thankful for the wonderful education he received. His 4 children have fond memories of visiting Williams for many reunions and hearing tales of his college days. Frank was a banker employed by Morgan Guaranty Trust Co. (now JP Morgan Chase) and enjoyed a long and satisfying career with the bank, working in NYC, SF, LA and back to NYC before taking early retirement in 1986. Once retired, Frank was on the Board of CBSF and Raphael House. He traveled extensively visiting with friends and family throughout the United States, Europe, Australia and New Zealand. During retirement his primary residence was in South Lake Tahoe, Nevada where he was a regular customer at the casinos and was an avid poker and blackjack player. Frank also kept an apartment in San Francisco where he delighted in finding and trying new restaurants (eating all his meals out), playing bridge, going to the ballet and symphony and spending time with family. Frank loved to read, especially newspapers. He enjoyed playing cards whether it be gin, go fish, fan tan, blackjack, poker or bridge. Frank dabbled in the stock market, had a real head for figures and thought his afternoon nap time was sacrosanct. For many years he enjoyed driving his 1972 Alfa Romeo Spider sports car. Frank was a real gentleman and had a good sense of humor. He was very social and larger than life with a voice to match. Frank is survived by his 4 children Rebecca McIntosh (Wayne), Frank (Denise), Tucker and Morgan and his four grandchildren, Hunter, Jordan and Natasha Rosenbach and Corban McIntosh. He also leaves behind his former wife, Mimi Johnston, his sister Doris Hatfield and his niece Jennifer Rosalia and family. A celebration of his life will be held at a later time
