Nancy K. Rumery

Nancy Kluge Rumery, 93, passed away Thursday, March 17, 2016, in Southern Pines.

She is survived by her sister Barbara Deming; son David R. Hall, Jr.; stepson John R. Rumery, Jr.; daughter Lisa Hall Brooks (David); grandson Whitney David Brooks (Kate); granddaughter Stacey Brooks Sicher (Zack); and three great-grandchildren.

Nancy was raised in Montclair, N.J., attended Kimberly School and graduated from Bennington College, in Vermont. She lived in Short Hills, N.J., with her husband David R. Hall, who died in 1975, where she served on the boards of the Short Hills Garden Club, Junior League of the Oranges/Short Hills, Bennington College Alumni, and the Alter Guild of Christ Church.

She and husband John R. (Jack) Rumery lived between Pinehurst and Sunapee, N.H., where Nancy was involved with further charitable work. She had a passion for gardening and flowers.

Her children will be hosting a memorial reception on Tuesday, March 22 at 4:30 p.m. in the sunroom at Belle Meade.

Donations in Nancy's memory can be made to PruittHospice of Fayetteville, or Lake Sunapee Protective Association. Online condolences may be made at www.bolesfuneralhome.com.

Boles Funeral Home of Southern Pines is serving the family.
