

W. 45

Lydia B. Toll(1924 - 2018)

Lydia B. Toll died August 6, 2018 in Denver after a long illness. She was the daughter of Ellis and Ellen Brewster of Plymouth. Born in March of 1924. She attended Plymouth schools, Walnut Hill School in Natick and Vassar College. She married Henry Wolcott Toll Jr. of Denver in 1948. They had five children, Henry, William, Ellen, Lois and Edward, and lived in Denver for all of their married life. She is survived by four of her children and her brother Ben. Her husband and daughter, Ellen, having predeceased her. She was a member of the Pilgrim Society and The Mayflower Descendants and had a long period of service to the Denver Museum of Natural History and other civic causes. She, with her family, enjoyed skiing and river rafting and she loved and was much loved by her family.

Published in Old Colony Memorial from Aug. 8 to Aug. 18, 2018