

Williams

Matte, Wendy <wmatte@williams.edu>

Obit for Gene Wolfe Class of '42

1 message

Eileen Wolfe <eileenwolfe@aol.com>

Wed, Oct 24, 2018 at 2:19 PM

To: Thuna3@yahoo.com

Cc: wmatte@williams.edu

Eugene Wolfe, Class of '42, died peacefully at home in Pelham, NY on July 17th at the age of 97.

Gene joined the Navy after graduation. He served In the South Pacific Theater during WWII. He returned to NY to study Fine Art at the Art Students League. Over the years he worked for McGraw Hill, Time, Inc., and Gene Wolfe & Co., his own advertising agency. In 1973 he started the NY Tabletop Show, then along with his wife, Eileen opened wholesale showrooms for tabletop and home furnishing companies in New York, Dallas and Atlanta. Eugene retired in 2013.

Eugene leaves behind his wife, Eileen and six children: Jann (Williams '74), Susan Weston, Teresa Panzella, Johanna Disney, Greg Wolfe and Megan Wolfe, along with Eight grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Sent from my iPad

