Obituary / Death Notice
ELIZABETH HOUCK YEIDE Departed this life peacefully in her home at Asbury Methodist Village on April 19, 2017. She was the loving wife of Dr. Harry Elwood Yeide, Jr., who died in 2013. She is survived by her children, Harry Yeide, Katherine Eynon, and Martha Yeide, four grandchildren, and two great grandchildren. Betty was born in Mill Gap, VA, on October 1, 1932 and grew up as the daughter of a Presbyterian minister who served parishes across North Carolina. She attended Flora McDonald College and graduated with a bachelors degree in music. She moved to New York City and earned her masters in sacred music. There she fell in love with Harry, who became an ordained Lutheran Minister. During his PhD studies, she moved to Hirschau, Germany, for a year and learned workable German by reading books and using a dictionary. They ultimately settled in Silver Spring, MD, where they raised their children. Betty participated throughout her life as organist and music director at churches in the area. She will be remembered with love by many. Her memorial service will take place on May 6 at 1 p.m. at Trinity Lutheran Church, 11200 Old Georgetown Rd., North Bethesda, 20852. In lieu of flowers, donations would be welcome to Montgomery Hospice of Rockville, MD, or the Asbury Village Benevolence Fund.
